WHY THE Y?

"Why Did You Come to the Y?" will be topic of the Free Forum Wednesday at 10 a.m. on the West Patio of the Wilkinson Center. Students and faculty are invited to attend and participate by the sponsors, the Academic Office.

Dancers Perform At Forum

Ethnic dance expert Matteo and his Indo-American Dance Group will perform at the Forum Assembly Thursday (July 27) at 10 a.m. in the deJong Concert Hall.

The newly-formed group is composed of teenagers majoring in ballet or modern dance at New York City's High School of the Performing Arts. In a school day filled with academic studies plus ballet, modern, jazz, dance history and related subjects, the members of the group, with very limited working hours, are trying to broaden their dance horizons with dance experiences born long ago.

Matteo, an American of Italian descent and a non-union pupil of America's foremost ethnic dance specialist, La Mari, has been hailed in India for his accomplishments and dedication in the field of Indian dance. Matteo, artistic director of the group, is a world-renowned performer of traditional, classic, and folkloric ethnic dance.

Nibley Gives Book Review

Dr. Hugh Nibley will review "Joseph Smith as the Translator" by Bishop F. S. Spalding today at 11 a.m. in room 347 of the Wilkinson Center.

The book by Bishop Spalding was written in an effort to prove the Book of Abraham was a fraud by sending copies of the hieroglyphs to authorities in the field of Egyptology.

Dr. Nibley has done wide research in this area and is well known for his books and articles on this and many other subjects. Dr. Nibley received his B.A. from the University of California at Los Angeles and his Ph.D. from Berkeley. He is also an authority of both New and Old Testament languages.

State Department Far East Expert Lectures Vietnam Conference Today

Dr. Frederick Carleton Ashley, staff member with the deputy assistant secretary of State for Far East and Pacific affairs, will be guest at a conference on Vietnam running today through Thursday.

Ashley will participate with scholars on the three evenings in lectures and panel sessions from 7 to 9:30 p.m. in the Joseph Smith Auditorium. The first hour of each session is devoted to a lecture on a subject, followed by a discussion by a panel of experts, then a question and answer period. Tonight, July 28, will be devoted to "The Threat of

For his service in Vietnam, Premier Nguyen Cao Ky awarded him the distinguished service medal in 1966.

Other lecturers will include Edwin Firmage of the University of Utah Law School and former assistant to Vice-President Hubert Humphrey; Dr. Lee W. Francisworth, associate professor of political science at BYU; Dr. Ray C.

Hillman, associate professor of political science who has done special study for the State Department in Vietnam; and Russell Horuchi, BYU associate professor of geography.

The public is invited, and participants may register at the door or in advance by contacting the BYU Office of Special Courses and Conferences.

Organ Recital Scheduled For Tabernacle

An organ recital will be presented in the Provo Tabernacle on Thursday, July 27, at 7 p.m. by Michael F. Moody, a graduate student in music. Mr. Moody will play works of Bach, Brahms, Camper, and Marcel Dupre.

This recital is one of a series of recitals being given this summer as part of a program to familiarize the public with the recently renovated Provo Tabernacle. It is free to the public.

Tickets For Dance On Sale

This year's Summer Formal will take place on Friday, July 28 in the main ballroom of the Wilkinson Center between the hours of 8:30 p.m. and 12:30. The theme will depict the 1890's with a "picnic" setting.

Tickets are now on sale at the main desk of the Wilkinson Center at $1.75 per couple.

The atmosphere will be enhanced by abundant green foliage and the fragrance of fresh gardenias. Music will be provided by Stewart Grow's orchestra. Grow has been featured several times in the Skyroom of the Hotel Utah. He has also appeared periodically at the Valley Music Hall.

Also included on the program will be the Canyon Lads, a locally well-known barbershop quartet. Steve Baer, a BYU music major will be a featured soloist.

To add to the 1890's theme there will be a swing, a saw-saw, a park bridge and several bicycles-buffet-for-two.

Photographs will be available for couples interested and will sell at a cost of $1.75 for two pictures. Pictures will be delivered the same night.

Which School?

Booklet
Tells How To Chose

What should every student expect of a college community and how can he evaluate it before making his decision? Will the college of his choice provide him with both the academic and social atmosphere he seeks? And, most important, is his choice a realistic one in terms of his abilities and his financial situation?

With a candor that is rarely found today, Wesleyan University's Dean of Admissions and Freshmen, John C. Hoy answers these questions and many others in "CHOOSING A COLLEGE."

This up-to-the-minute handbook is aimed at guidance counselors and college admissions officers as well as students and parents. Answering such important questions as how to choose the college that will give each individual the kind of education that is best suited to him, plus how to finance this education (with or without scholarships), Dean Hoy probes the complexities of academic policies—how colleges weigh test scores and high school records, what colleges look for in an applicant's autobiography, what questions are invariably asked in interviews and what effect regional distribution has on a candidate's acceptance or rejection.

Dean Hoy has written an authoritative, sympathetic guide that goes far beyond the "how-to" and delves into the "why" of college selection, feels very strongly that an applicant should control his college choice and that "over the last decade students have unwittingly given the choice of selection exclusively to the schools, relegating themselves to the position of helpless prospects, willing to accept any offer in the scramble for admission." In addition to Dean Hoy's astute guidance and frank advice, CHOOSING A COLLEGE includes reproductions of actual high school transcripts and explains how they are evaluated by the admissions board.

Peace Corps
Chooses BYU
For Languages

WASHINGTON — The Peace Corps has signed a $24,415 contract with the Brigham Young University for the development of language training materials for Western Samoa, Sen. Wallace F. Bennett, R-Utah, announced today.

"The materials will include dialogues, pronunciation exercises, vocabulary studies and structural drills," Sen. Bennett said.
